

Czech Film Spring

Spring in Brussels belongs to film events and Czech Centre Brussels goes with the flow with its programme of film screenings and festivals in Brussels. This year's Film Spring is mainly defined by new documentary films produced in Czech Republic but feature films and animation will not be left behind!

Anima, Offscreen, Millenium & hommage Jan Palach | March

March will start with ANIMA Festival where Czech animation will be represented by young filmmaker Tereza Kovandová who will introduce her film "Bloody Fairy Tales". Then, a very remarkable feature film "Domes-tique" will be a part of this year's Offscreen festival.

On the 20th, the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the self-immolation of student Jan Palach will be remembered with the screening of the new film by Robert Sedláček in the House of the European History

March will also be the month of Millenium Festival, one of the highlights of Brussels documentary events, which will invite two Czech documentaries.

One World Brussels | April

The documentary season will continue in April with One World in Brussels 2019, a 13th edition of the series of screenings and debates with human rights defenders and activists. One World in Brussels 2019 revolves around the topic of "Safe Proximity" and raises the questions of identity, divided society and common values
